Contractors are noncontainal and when approached yesterday said that they had not yet reserved the notice and until them to uld not tell was a clind they would take. It is probable that a meeting of the contractors will be held this week.

Police Officials Explain Necessity for Removal of Present District -Representatives of Profestant Churches Object.

A strong protest against the removal of the social cvil district to any location within or contiguous to St. Malachy's Parish was voiced yesterday by the parishioners school hall. Besides the parishioners of the Catholic Church, representatives of the Swellsh First M. E. Church and of St. Luke's Evangelical Latheran Church were present to add their voices to the protest. The Reverend Doctor Welser of St. Luke' Doctor Jonas P. Johnson of the Swedish clear speakers who addressed the indignation meeting called by Father Ziegier. The meeting was one of the largest eve held in the parish. Police Commissioners Hawes, Blong and Ballard, who had been invited to attend, were present, and exthe sprestlen of the removal of the immeral women from the district they at present inhabit and their location in another district far removal from central traffic.

Matthew Ryan presided at the mee and John C. Kenny and B. F. McDonald noted as secretaries. Father Ziegler, the first speaker, after the meeting was called to order, explained the purpose of its calling, in a vigorous speech that was leadly applanded. He said that reports of the probable intention of the Police Board to remove the inhabitants of the social evil district to a territory within the boundaries of St. Malachy's parish had are used the people of the parish to take action which would preserve the pur ity of the moral atmosphere of the parish and prevent its contamination by the moral lepers with which it was threatened. said that not alone were the Catholics of the neighborhood opposed to the infliction of this evil upon the neighborhood, but that men and women of every creed were manimous in protesting against any such etion said to be contemplated by the Po-

Hee Board.

Doctor Walser and Doctor Johnson, on bebalf of their congregations, seconded Father Ziegler.

Chairman Ryan then introduced Harry B. Hawes, president of the Police Board, who made an address outlining the situation which confronts the board in dealing with the question of the regulation of the denizens of the social evil district. He explained that the hourd had no intention of forcing these unwelcome neighbors upon any ed that the board had no intention of foreing these unwelcome neighbors upon any community, but that it was for the better protection of the public that they be located in some well defined district, subject to police surveillance, where their presence would be least objectionable to the greatest number. He said that the location cantiguous to St. Malachy's parish was only one of many that had been suggested as a permanent location for these women, and that no action would be taken, or had been contemplated, and the wishes of the majority of the psonie living in the districts suggested had been learned. It was for that reason, he said, that the public had been invited to confer with the Police Commissioners in the discussions on the subject.

Chairman Ryan at the conclusion of the meeting announced that another meeting will be held in the same hall next Sunday REACTION NOTICED IN STOCK MARKET.

Made Toward a Higher Level of Prices.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Jan. 5.-The security market furing the week made progress towards the ligher level of prices, which had been prodicted Stock operations increased nearly one-third in volume over the preceding interval, though falling considerably below the high record of sales for the corresponding week one year ago. Bond dealing reflected a material improvement both as to the volume of transactions and the character of the buying. The best feature of the market was found in this division, where investment interests were at work. In the advance of prices, for once at least, it was the expected which happened in the security market. For weeks the speculathe year as marking the time when the interests in control of the situation would seek to stimulate an upward movement. This came, according to schedule, and, barring some unforeseen event, the professional element look for some continuance Their chief reliance rests upon the strength and resources of the powerful forces committed to the buil side of the market rather than upon further developments in general business conditions, which every one hopes will continue as highly satisfactory as at present, but which every one realizes has reached if it has not turned on the up swing of the pendulum.

Manifestation of Power. The same interests which have held the market firm for months gave another manifestation of their power during the week and showed their ability to hold and ad-vance values in the face of stringent money conditions. It was noted, in fact, that it was only when money relaxed and the nocessity of artificial stimulant had passed away that prices became irregular and cased off. The movement is regarded, generally, as part of an effort to distribute stocks accumulated in times of stress or for purposes of protecting other holdings. Nevertheless, it is not improbable that the ettempt may be successful. Within a period of but one week have followed in rapid succession the collapse of the National Asphalt Company and the Asphalt Company of America, the embarrassment of the Everett-Moore Syndicate of Ohio and Michgan trolleys, railroads and telephone corporations, with an aggregate capitalization of $125,00,00, and the announcement on Saturday of the failure of the Crude Rubber Company, with Habili-Influence Public Minds.

Gold Exports Setting In.

The development in the money market of the week was not found in the high rates for call leans, which touched 20 per cent, though ruling lower, or, in the bank statement of Saturday, which showed the statement of Saturday, which showed the heavy increase of $15,000.00 in the loan account.

These were but incidents of the end of the year and will as specifity pass away. The truly important incident was reflected in the steadily advancing rate for sterling exchange. On Saturday demand bills mounted to a point which clearly foreshadows a resumption of gold shipments. Possibly exports will be made to Paris during the coming week, though transportation facilities are not favorable to consignments. Shipments of geld to Europe in January are not unusual, and in the present instance their resumption points to no new development in the international money market and adds nothing to what is already known of the monetary situation. The shipments, however, will direct attention again to the enormous amount of our floating obligations abroad, resulting from the expeculative debauch of last spring, and to the expedients to which financial interests resorted to keep the local money market easy while the game was in progress. eavy increase of $15,000,000 in the loan ac-
